INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Acts of the Apostles 10: 34,37-43 The Apostle Peter was originally skeptical about preaching the Gospel to non-Jews. But one day, the Holy Spirit summoned him to preach to a Gentile - the pagan army officer Cornelius and his household. Today's passage is a portion of Peter's sermon, which summarizes the life and ministry of Jesus.

Colossians 3: 1-4 The letter to the Colossians depicts Christ as the only mediator between God and the world. A previous passage of the letter presented baptism as the way we are united with Christ. The author will today remind us of the heights to which Christ has raised us, and then call upon us to live up to this.

Next Sunday's Readings: Acts of the Apostles 2:42 –47 and 1 Peter 1:3-9; Gospel: John 20:19-31

An Easter Message from Bishop Mark

Easter 2020

It sounds so awkward to say Happy Easter this year. During the past month, people everywhere added new words to their vocabulary: Coronavirus and COVID-19. The dreaded virus that these words represent made us learn another dimension of living as we "shelter in place." Two of my favorite Easter stories have something to do with this directive given by public health officials and other government leaders.

At the end of the Gospel of John it says, "On the evening of that first day of the week, even though the disciples had locked the doors of the place they were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood before them." (John 20:19). Most of the disciples sheltered in place. They were in the Upper Room where they had been with Jesus at the Last Supper.

It's important to notice that they were afraid; especially afraid that someone might come and arrest them. And they were afraid because Jesus had died on the cross and his body was placed in a tomb. They thought the story ended on that sad note.

But John's Gospel continues with these words: "Jesus came and stood before them and said, 'Peace be with you.' When he had said this he showed them his hands and his side. At the sight of the Lord the disciples rejoiced. 'Peace be with you,' he said again." (John 20:19-21).

Even though we have been deprived of opportunities to be together for fear of the COVID-19 virus spreading, the Lord Jesus has not forgotten or abandoned us. And as we hear in John's Gospel, Jesus doesn't need to knock on the door. He comes on Easter Sunday and appears before us and calmly greets us with words of peace.

I am sure that I am not the only one who has listened to the thoughts of people who have not only been anxious and worried, but have been deeply frightened by this pandemic.

And so many people have asked me how to reconcile those feelings with our faith in God; a faith that we want to rely on. One response I heard during these past days makes a perfect connection between our faith and the precautions we have been urged to take during this pandemic.

I was reminded that health officials have urged that we wash our hands frequently for 60 seconds. A friend told me, one way to do it without watching a clock is to say the Lord's Prayer; the Our Father. Stop right now and try it. That prayer literally takes a minute.

But don't just time it. Focus on the words of that prayer in which we call out to our heavenly Father and ask his help in making God's Kingdom a reality in a time and place that seems so strange right now. Ask his help in giving your daily bread; which includes every word that his Son has taught us. It's about forgiveness of sins and avoiding the temptation of following directions that will only get us lost, or even worse, like people who don't listen to the direction to shelter in place. Teach your children how to wash their hands this way!

The other Easter story I invite you to think about is told in Luke 24:13-35. It's about two of the disciples who decided not to shelter in place with the others in the Upper Room. They set out for their hometown of Emmaus, totally dejected over the whole experience of having followed Christ only to see him die on the cross.

But everything changes when Jesus appears, walks with them, talks with them, and accepts their invitation to stop and share a meal. It was there that Jesus revealed himself to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Lord Jesus immediately disappeared from their sight and their reaction was amazing. They recalled how they felt their hearts burning when they were walking and listening to Jesus on the road. So instead of throwing in the towel, they ran back to Jerusalem and told the others the Good News that Jesus Christ is risen!

During these days of Coronavirus and COVID-19 and sheltering in place, I have heard numerous stories of people who had become distant from the Lord Jesus for all sorts of reasons. But coming together with others and for others in this time of need has made their hearts burn with the love of Jesus who has been missing from their lives.

It means that even in the darkest times; even in the times when we feel that the Lord is far away, or we have run from him; Jesus appears to us and says, "Peace be with you." It means that the place for each of us to shelter is with each other and with the Risen Lord.

The Lord Jesus Christ is as near to each of us as he was to the disciples in those encounters that are found in the Gospels. The impact of the pandemic may be around for a while, but we have our shelter which is not just a place but the person of our Savior Jesus, who is with us all the way.

I look forward to the day when we can be together in our churches; around the Lord's altar. It will come. In this time of need, pray for each other. It will not only keep your hands clean, but it will be a reminder of the merciful love that our Father has for each of us. Easter prayers and blessing for all of you!

2020 Easter Memorials

In memory of those we love

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end.

I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone, are now in the company with Christ, who died and now lives.

May they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away.

Unite us together again in one family, to sing Your praise forever and ever. Amen.

Χριστὸς ἀνέστη! Ἀληθῶς ἀνέστη!
Christ is risen! Truly he is risen!

In some Christian cultures this is an ancient way Christians greet each other during the Easter Season. So, I say to all of you, "Christ is risen!"

Especially in this difficult year, we probably need to hear this greeting more than ever. Despite all that has gone wrong in recent weeks, despite the coronavirus pandemic, despite the shock to our society and economy, despite the massive layoffs, despite the masks and gloves, despite the empty shelves where sanitizer used to reside, despite the loss of so many activities during this sacred time, despite our having to shelter in place, Christ is risen!

Perhaps God our Father is reminding us again to place our hope and trust in the only place where they can safely reside: in the Risen Christ. He is that sacred place, that Temple, where neither moth nor decay (nor coronavirus) can destroy, that place where thieves cannot break in and steal. He and he alone is the source of everlasting life, our rock of stability, our sure support, and we place our hope and trust in him.

Our lives and our faith and our world will undoubtedly be different because of this experience. I have a sense that many things may change, hopefully some for the better and, alas, maybe a few for the worse. In the midst of turmoil and difficulty, we can continue to find our stability in the peace of the Risen One, the quiet abiding presence of God who is always with us.

I greet you my friends, with tidings of great joy: Christ is Risen! Truly he is Risen!

MASS RECORDINGS

With much gratitude to Fr. Alan, Deacon Chuck Ahearn, Deacon Allan Duman, seminarian Brian Norris, and parishioners Harold & Kathy DeLozier we have video recordings of Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil and Easter Morning on our parish website and the parish facebook page.

Fr. Alan will continue to record the daily Gospel readings and his homilies. The audio recordings will be available on our parish website.

Practice SOCIAL distancing,
NOT SPIRITUAL distancing.

Since we are unable to receive communion physically at this time, here is a prayer for spiritual communion. It was written by Pope Francis:

I prostrate myself at your feet, O my Jesus, and I offer you the repentance of my contrite heart, which abases itself in its nothingness in Your Holy Presence. I adore you in the Sacrament of Your Love; I desire to receive You in the poor abode that my heart offers You. While waiting for the happiness of a Sacramental Communion, I want to possess You in spirit. Come to me, O my Jesus, that I may come to You. May Your Love inflame my whole being, in life and in death. I believe in You, I hope in You, I love You. Amen

DAILY & SUNDAY READINGS
http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings

Today Christians remember the glorious resurrection of our Savior. Death could not keep the Lord in the tomb. Christ has conquered death and new life is ours. On Easter Sunday we stand and renew our baptismal promises. We reject evil and sin, and profess our faith in God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We are claimed for Jesus Christ who died and rose. For fifty days we will sing our alleluias and praise God for the gift of resurrection. Sorrow leads to joy; despair fades into hope, and apathy is overcome by divine love. Happy Easter!

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do Thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God, cast into hell,
Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl through the world,
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

For GOD so Loved...

A children's bulletin for the sixth week of Lent

God so loves the world he made.
Sent his Son so we'd be saved.
On the cross our Savior died.
But on Easter he did rise!

Color in this picture of Mary arriving at the tomb on Easter morning.

Some soldiers stood guard at the tomb.
The sun was just about to rise.
They felt a shake.
They heard a BOOM.
An angel flew down from the skies.
The stone was moved. The angel cheered.
"Don't be afraid! He is not here!"

How many words can you make from the word earthquake?

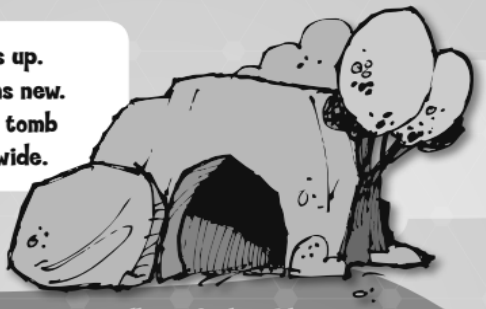
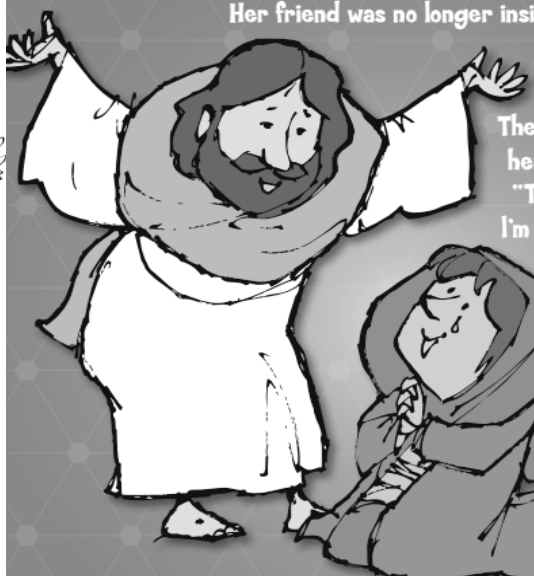
The sun was up.
The day was new.
The garden tomb was open wide.



But Mary still was feeling blue.
Her friend was no longer inside.



Then Mary heard her Savior say, "Tell everyone I'm risen today!"

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!
