MISSION STATEMENT OF THE ST. MICHAEL FAITH COMMUNITY

Extending a rich parish heritage built upon the pioneering traditions of the first settlers of the Southern Allegheny mountains, St. Michael the Archangel Parish embraces as its mission the use of all available resources, both spiritual and temporal, to minister to the needs of the people of Hollidaysburg and its surrounding areas. We do this in a fashion which reflects the teachings and example of Jesus Christ, while promoting a tradition of liturgical excellence, strong support for Catholic education in all its varieties, and enlightened social outreach to the community at large, in union with both the Diocesan and Universal Church.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 12: 13, 16-19 The book of Wisdom was written about 50 years before Christ. In one lengthy section of this book, the author looks back to the wonderful things God did for the Jewish people during the exodus. In today's passage from that section, the author speaks directly to God with words of praise.

Second Reading: Romans 8: 26-27 We continue to read from the eighth chapter of the letter to the Romans, in which Paul discusses the role of God's Spirit in our life. Today's brief reading gives us a remarkable insight into prayer.

Next Sunday's Readings: 1Kings 3:5,7-12 and Romans 8:28-30; Gospel: Matthew 13:44-52

RITE OF ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

NEXT Saturday, July 25th at the 4:00 PM Mass at St. Mary Church, Brian Norris will receive admission to Candidacy by Bishop Mark Bartchak. In this rite, the one who aspires to ordination publicly manifests his will to offer himself to God and the Church to exercise a sacred order. In this way, he is admitted into the ranks of candidates for the diaconate and priesthood. May the Lord pour out the grace of his blessing on His servant, Brian who desires to devote himself to the ministry of the Church and a life of generous service to the faithful of the diocese. This admission to candidacy of Brian shows us that the Holy Spirit is working in the hearts and minds of the people of the diocese, stirring up in men's hearts the desire to follow and imitate Christ. All are welcome and encouraged to attend the celebration. Please keep Brian in your prayers.

It took us four consecutive Saturdays, but we are happy to announce and congratulate all from our parish who received their First Communion. Many thanks to Sue Teske, our parish's Director of Religious Education, to the children's Religious Education teachers and especially to their parents for preparing them for the Sacrament.

ONLINE LINE GIVING

For weekly offerings and Catholic Ministries Drive

The diocese has set-up a parish on-line giving account for every parish in the diocese. If you would like to give this way just visit: <https://www.dioceseaj.org/giving/> to setup an account. Just look for "St. Michael, Hollidaysburg (054)" under the "Select a parish to receive your gift". Contact the parish office if you have any questions.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Like the mustard bush that began with the "smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown and the largest of the plants," (Mt 13: 32) we can all become children of the Kingdom.

Stewardship is most deeply about pleasure and increase. When you are generous you are doing something that makes a difference in someone's life and that does make you feel good. "Stewardship is already in your heart. There is something deep within us that is good and generous, some almost biological sensation that is triggered when we see a need. It is that good feeling that well up within us when another's person's needs and our shared gifts intersect. (Seven Secrets of Successful Stewards, Paul Wilkes, 2005, St. Anthony Messenger Press)

When each of us shares our times, our talents, and our treasures through the parish, the faith community thrives as our example inspires others to become good stewards.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL
 St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
