Our Deepest Sympathy

To the family and friends of Richard A. DeHaven and Matthew Drass. May God grant them eternal rest and bring comfort to all who mourn their loss.

May Mary, the Sorrowful Mother, console the hearts of all who mourn the loss of a Loved One.

The Councils

of St. Mary & St. Michael Parish have agreed to combine resources between our two parishes where it makes the most financial sense. So, beginning with this bulletin, we are producing a combined bulletin.

You are invited to attend events and Masses at either parish.

If you use church envelopes for your offertory, you may place it in either collection and your offertory gift will be given to the parish on the envelope.

If you are interested in advertising in the new combined bulletin, call Janet at 814-695-0912 for more information.

Attention Business Owners

Our weekly bulletin is provided free of charge thanks to our advertisers. If you own your own business we would like to promote you in our parish bulletin.

Parish members want to do business with people they can trust—namely, their fellow parishioners. Advertising in the bulletin helps parishioners who are business owners reach a very loyal audience. Studies show that 68% of households surveyed, when making a choice between businesses, are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the bulletin. Potential new customers are sitting right next to you in church.

We ask that you bring your business card to Mass and place it in the offering basket next weekend. Janet will contact you regarding advertising in our weekly bulletin or you may call Janet directly at 814-695-0912 for more information. Thank you for your consideration.

Trinity Sunday

Matthew 28:16-20

In today's gospel Jesus commands, "Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you." This command is meant for every Christian. In light of this command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks. Jesus commands all parents to teach their children "all that I have commanded you."

Stewardship of Inheritance

The Most Holy Trinity

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." - Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good Stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40 The book of Deuteronomy contains a lengthy speech that Moses addressed to the people as they prepared to enter the Promised Land. This was a place where the people worshipped many gods and goddesses. Moses reminds them there is only one God – the One who brought them out of Egypt.

Romans 8:14-17 Paul's letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. In this portion of the letter, Paul stresses the importance of the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christians. Through the Spirit's presence within us, we enjoy not only new life but also a new relationship with God, whom we can call by a new name.

Gospel Matthew 28:16-20

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS (June 6)
Exodus 24:3-8 and Hebrews 9:11-15
Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Saint Joseph, Man Chosen by the Blessed Trinity, pray for us.

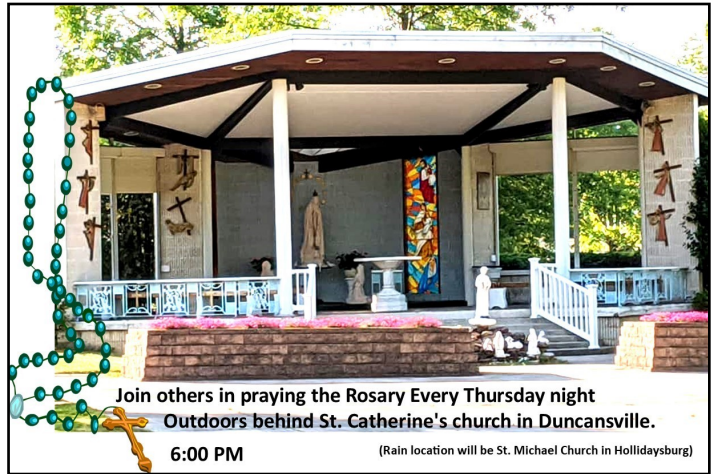

"We know that Joseph was a lowly carpenter, betrothed to Mary. He was a just man ever ready to carry out God's will as revealed to him in the Law and through four dreams. After a long and tiring journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem, he beheld the birth of the Messiah in a stable...He witnessed the adoration of the shepherds and the magi, who represented respectively the people of Israel and the pagan peoples."

(Mt 1:18, 19, 20; 2: 1-13.19.22; Lk 1:22.27.39; 2:1-12, 7-20)

Saint Joseph was chosen by God, the Father, to be his representative on earth. God granted him all the graces and blessing he needed to be a worthy representative. Joseph was chosen by God, the Son, to be his foster father. After Mary, Joseph is the holiest of the saints. Joseph was chosen by the Holy Spirit. He is the mutual Love of the Father and the Son-the heart of the Trinity. Joseph had a most responsible vocation-to open the way for redemption of the world and to prepare for it by the education and guidance of the youth of the God-man.

With Grateful Thanks

It was wonderful to be able to show off the renovation work at St. Michael last weekend. Parishioners as well as members of community and people from other parishes enjoyed the tours, stories, videos and pictures of the renovation and sharing of the history of St. Michael parish. Many thanks to the St. Michael Parish Council for organizing the event and for all who helped: Dave & Mary Jo Lanzel, Lisa Michelone, Paul Puskar, Albert Ghantous (the president of Elias painting), Joe Harteis, Terry Wilt, Anna McClain, Rita Pompa (refreshment coordinator), Anne Musser, Tom Baker, Denise Madden, Marty Culp, Steve Frank, Paula Aigner, Mike Icenroad and Barry Craig.

Thanks also to Rick and Diane Bunn for their volunteer work on making the church grounds look spectacular. We appreciate all their hard work and for the recent planting of new flowers along with the help of Steve Frank, Frank McClain and Dave Lanzel.

We would be amiss if we did give an extra thank you to Steve Frank who recently noticed that Fr.'s garage needed to be cleaned and reorganized. He did a fabulous job and gave Fr. Alan much more room to park his car. Thanks Steve!

A CATHOLIC CEMETERY...A PLACE TO VISIT

Sister Ofelia Roibas—Diocese of Reno

Cemeteries are one of the most beautiful and Sacred places to visit on earth.

The quietness, the stillness, the rustling of the leaves in the trees and the solitude all invite us to realize that they are not only a place for the dead but a place for the living as well.

It is nice to visit the cemeteries not only on Memorial Day or on All Souls Day but to take time on birthdays, on the anniversaries of their death or whenever we are moved to connect with our beloved ones who have preceded us in the encounter with the Lord

For us, the living who are still here, this time can be an opportunity for reflection, healing, forgiveness, remembrance of the blessings they bestowed on our lives and the revival of their love for us and of our love for them.

When visiting the grave, crypt or niche of a friend or relative it is good to "talk" with the deceased one. We as human beings need this connection and emotional reflection. It is also a good time to "speak" to our Lord.

Memorial Day

Take time to remember family members who have gone home to the Lord. These memories are sacred for they rekindle our faith and hope for a future reunion. We were born from their love and will return to their love.

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of
Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn then, most gracious Advocate,
thine eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit
of thy womb, Jesus,
O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!
Amen.
