One of the many things the pandemic taught us is that we as parishes need a quick and reliable way to reach out to our parishioners. The diocese and other parishes have had great success with a program called Flocknotes. We are excited to now be bringing Flocknotes to both St. Mary and St. Michael parishes. Parents and teachers in our Religious Education program have already signed on and found it easy to use.

It's easy, fast and customizable. Receive notices from just the groups you are interested in. No unwanted emails or texts from groups you are not a member of. Notifications can be sent directly to your email or as a text message to your phone, or both, you decide.

Solemnity of Christ the King

November 21st is the Solemnity of Christ the King which "crowns" the end of the Liturgical Year, it is followed by the First Sunday of Advent - the beginning of a new Liturgical Year!

Additionally, the 10:00 AM Mass at St. Mary and the 11:30 AM Mass at St. Michael on this Solemnity includes the "Rite of Welcome" for our RCIA Participants those men, women and young folks who are discerning a relationship with Jesus Christ in the Catholic Church.

In this Rite we welcome and embrace them as our own brothers and sisters on the journey ahead; for they have been drawn to us here at St. Mary and St. Michael to walk this path toward their new, and our renewed, life in Christ, come Easter.

Reception of Communion

The weekend of Nov. 27th & 28th we will revert to approaching Communion from the center aisle and returning by the side aisles.

Greenlawn Cemetery

is hosting a cemetery cleanup on Saturday, November 20th at 10:00 AM all are invited to help remove items and debris and place snow markers.

Catholic Charities

Stewardship Reflection

When we have firmly established as individuals, as a family and as a parish that we will give to God the first and best portion of our Time, Talent, and Treasure, the warnings we read in scripture today need not cause us alarm. In fact, we can receive them as encouragement, to "Keep Calm and Steward on," no matter what comes our way.

One of the blessings of a stewardship way of life is that in challenging times whether in our homes or workplaces, or even our beloved Church itself, we can take great comfort in knowing we have a concrete plan to keep our priorities in right order. And when we put God first in all aspects of our lives, we will experience the peace that only He can give that surpasses all understanding.

Eucharistic Prayer Class

In preparation for the Eucharistic renewal which the U.S. Bishops hope to undertake in 2022, Fr. Alan is offering a series of classes on the Eucharistic Prayers used at Mass.

Topics include:

- Which one of the Eucharistic Prayers comes from the oldest sources?
- Which of them is the most recent?
- To whom are each of them addressed?
- What is the role of deacons and the lay faithful in the Eucharistic Prayer?

A line-by-line explanation of each of the Eucharistic Prayers may help you participate more readily in this important part of the Mass.

Classes are on Tuesdays, at 6:30 PM, at St. Michael Church. All are welcome! The next class will be on Tuesday, November 16.

The Altoona Ambucs

Pray FOR THE Dead
THEY REMAIN IN OUR HEARTS—ALWAYS!

In the church you will find our Book of the Deceased. Please feel free to add the names of your deceased loved ones to have them remembered at Mass for the month of November.

Jesus said to his disciples, "And they will see 'the son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." Mark 13:26

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS
Thirty - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Daniel 12:1-3 The book of Daniel was written 150 years before Christ, when the Jews were experiencing fierce persecution. The author wanted to encourage the people by telling heroic stories about a person named Daniel who lived many centuries earlier. For most of their history, the Old Testament people believed only in, at best, a shadowy existence after death. Today's passage contains one of the earliest references to a growing belief in a more developed form of life after death.

Hebrews 10:11-14, 18 Scholars feel that the community for which the Letter to the Hebrews was written included Christians of Jewish origin. Since the letter was written after the Jewish temple was destroyed, they were pining for the old days when the high priest offered daily sacrifices in the temple. The author says they shouldn't feel sad. They no longer need a temple, sacrifices or priests, because Jesus is all of these and more.

Gospel Mark 12:24-32

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS (NOV. 21st.)
Daniel 7:13-14
Revelation 1:5-8
Gospel: John 18:33b-37

Patris corde, 7.
A Father in the Shadows

The Polish writer Jan Dobraczynski, in his book The Shadow of the Father, tells the story of Saint Joseph's life in the form of a novel. He uses the evocative image of a shadow to define Joseph. In his earthly relationship to Jesus, Joseph was the earthly shadow of the heavenly father: he watched over him and protected him, never leaving him to go his own way. Fathers are not born, but made. A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking up the responsibility to care for that child. Whenever a man accepts responsibility for the life of another, in some way he becomes a father to that person.

Pope John XXIII was nicknamed the Pope of St. Joseph as he always made public his devotion to St. Joseph. He described St. Joseph in this way to a large group of seminary rectors in 1961, "Meek, quiet, discreet: St. Joseph is the perfect model for imitation in circumstances that recur in every age and that call for self-denial and total abandonment to God." St. Joseph was named Patron of the Second Vatican Council so that "the Council may be tranquilly prepared for and well-conducted, thus bringing abundant fruit to souls."

St. Joseph, A Father in the Shadows, Perfect Model for all Fathers, pray for us.

(Pope Francis Apostolic Letter Patris corde, 2020, 7. Dec. 8, 2020; 2021), Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown Liturgy Committee, Liturgy Office, Mary, Mother of the Church Pastoral Center, 2713 W. Chestnut Avenue, Altoona, PA 16601.
