INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS
Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity (Cycle C)

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31
The book of Proverbs is mostly a collection of wise sayings to help people live a good life. Today's passage from Proverbs, however, is a hymn to Wisdom which in the Old Testament is sometimes symbolically described as a person coming from God.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5
Paul's letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. The Church chose this brief passage to be read on Trinity Sunday because, in these five verses, all three persons of the Trinity are mentioned.

Next Sunday's Readings
Genesis 14:18-20 (169C)
1 Corinthians 11:23-26
Luke 9:11b-17

Stewardship Reflection
Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast is rather unique in that it honors a doctrine rather than an event. What we are commemorating today is a central reality of our Christian faith, that God is Trinitarian in nature – three distinct persons – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – in one God.

The Church calls this truth a mystery, as indeed it is. It is not a mystery in the sense that it is a question that must be answered but rather in the sense that the depths of this truth are far beyond our human comprehension. Some have said that “mystery” in this context is “not a wall to run up against but an ocean in which to swim.”

What then should be our response to this sublime mystery? All we can do is worship. And offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love.

This week let’s re-invite God into the midst of our lives and make sure the way we spend our time and energy each day shows Him our profound gratitude for His many gifts to us - but above all the gift of Himself in the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
