INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S
READINGS

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9 (117C)
The book of Wisdom was written by a teacher who lived in Alexandria, Egypt, a center of learning for the ancient world. He addresses his writing to a group of Jews in that city who were being tempted to abandon their religious practices and beliefs. To bolster their faith, the author speaks of the memorable night of Passover when the angel of the Lord destroyed the enemies of the Jews.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19
Today and for the next three Sundays, the second reading will be from the letter to the Hebrews. This document was written by an author we do not know to a community we cannot identify. In today's section, the author encourages the community, whose faith is faltering, by calling to mind Old Testament heroes such as Abraham and Sarah.

Next Sunday's Readings
Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10 (120C)
Hebrews 12:1-4
Luke 12:49-53

Couples may attend Sunday, September 21st in ALTOONA at Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament or Sunday, September 28th in JOHNSTOWN at St. John Gualbert Cathedral.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Holy Day of Obligation

Friday, August 15th, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Catholics are obligated to participate at Mass on this day. The Church remembers that she who was immaculate from the moment of her conception because she was to bear the Eternal Word, did not die in the flesh but was assumed into heaven.

The east speaks of the "falling asleep" of the Mother of God. Decay could not touch the body of the one who bore the eternal Godhead, Jesus Christ. As Mary has gone, so all believers will have their body and soul reunited at the second coming of the Risen Christ. Come celebrate Mary's new life in the Lord's resurrection.
