VIRTUAL TOUR

REJOICE!

The great feast of Easter has begun, Christian stewards. Let us rejoice and be glad! Just as we embraced the disciplines and fasting of Lent, let us fully embrace the joy and feasting that the next 50 days offer. We are called to be good stewards of the Easter season.

Our first reading, from Acts, gives instructions on how to do this. Here, St Peter says that our Lord "commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead... that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name." How do we ordinary people preach and testify to all God has done? By the way we live our ordinary lives – through the intentional use of our time, talent and treasure for the kingdom of God. Putting God and others ahead of ourselves in every aspect of our lives is the most eloquent preaching we can do. Boldly and joyfully embracing a stewardship way of life is our most powerful testimony.

As Christian stewards, we are the modern-day witnesses of an incredible miracle prompted by unfathomable love – the death and Resurrection of our Savior for us. Let us rejoice and be glad, and let's make sure our lives are a testimony to this amazing grace!

PRIESTS FOR THE FUTURE
ALTOONA-JOHNSTOWN VOCATION APPEAL

Bishop Barchak would like to remind us to prayerfully consider participating in our diocese's Vocation Appeal.

Over the last few years, our diocese has had too few seminarians to replace our retiring priests, which poses an urgent need for our prayer and action. To ensure our parishes have priests for the future, our diocese's Vocation Office has developed a robust plan to reach young men and invite them to consider the priesthood. To learn more about this new plan, and to support financially, visit ajvocations.org/give.

Enroll Your Loved Ones

When you are deeply concerned about the health or well being of a friend or loved one, never underestimate the healing power of prayer. We invite you to consider enrolling that special person in the Franciscan Mass Association for Health and Healing.

The Franciscan Mass Association for Health and Healing offers remembrance for loved ones enrolled in the program in three ways:

1. Daily community Mass at
 Saint Bernadine Monastery
2. Daily community prayers at
 Saint Bernadine Monastery
3. Remembrance in all the prayers and merits of the good works of the Franciscan Friars, TOR, Province of the Immaculate Conception.

When you request an enrollment of someone you care deeply about, the Association will send you a beautiful membership card to send or present to the person you wish to enroll. We will also inscribe the enrolled person's name in the membership Book located near the altar at Saint Bernadine Monastery.

The suggested donation for each enrollment is $15. For more information please contact the Development Office at PO Box 139, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648-0139, or call 814-695-3802, or online www.thefranciscanfriars.org.

Liturgical Objects

Altar: A table on which the sacrifice of the Mass is offered. It is the center of importance in the place where the Mass is celebrated. Also called: The Table of the Lord.

Ambo: The place where the Scriptures are proclaimed.

Aspergillum: A vessel or device used for sprinkling holy water. The ordinary type is a metallic rod with a bulbous tip which absorbs the water and discharges it at the motion of the user's hand.

Celebrant's Chair: The place where the celebrant sits. It expresses his office of presiding over the assembly and of leading the prayer of those present.

Dalmatic: The vestment the deacon wears over the alb on solemn occasions.

Processional Cross: The cross carried in the processions.

Bread and Wine: The elements used in the celebration of Eucharist (unleavened bread and natural pure wine). NOTE: After the Eucharistic Prayer the bread and wine is referred to as: the consecrated bread and wine or the body and blood of Christ.

Tabernacle: Place in the church where the Eucharist or sacred species is reserved.

Chalice: The cup used to hold the wine.

Patén: The plate used to consecrate during the Eucharistic prayer.

Ciborium: A vessel used to hold the consecrated bread for the distribution of communion.

Vestment: The vesture the ministers wear.

Alb: The white garment covering one's street dress for participation in the liturgy.

Chasuble: The vestment worn over the alb by priests, bishops and Pope when celebrating the Mass.

Cassock: A non-liturgical, full-length, close-fitting robe for use by priests and other clerics under liturgical vestments; usually black for priests, purple for bishops and other prelates, red for cardinals, white for the Pope.

Surplice: a loose, flowing vestment of white fabric with wide sleeves. For some functions it is interchangeable with an alb.

Stole: The vestment worn around the neck by all ordained ministers. For priests, bishops and Pope, it hangs down in front (under the chasuble); the deacons wear it over their left shoulder crossed and fastened at the right side.

Lectionary: The book that contains all the readings from the Scriptures for use in the celebration of the liturgy.

Sacramentary: The book used by the celebrant, containing all the prayers for the liturgy of the Mass.

Book of Gospels: The book which contains the Gospel texts, from which the priests or deacon proclaims the Gospel of the day.
