EXHIBIT 4.11

To whom it may concern,

As a producer of "Budget Repairs", first interior design show in Kazakhstan about Renovation and Design, I had a pleasure of working with interior designer Saida Mei and was thoroughly impressed with her skills and expertise.

The show was aired in 2015 on national TV station "KTK" two times a week on Wednesdays 6PM, and Sundays at 10AM

The main idea of TV show was to help people with low-income to design and renovate their space with the help of professional team of designers and contractors. It was serving as an inspirational show that demonstrated the transformative power of design, providing guidance, resources and great design ideas. Through this program, families were given the opportunity to improve their living conditions, enhance functionality, and create a more aesthetically pleasing space on a limited budget. We were working on one room for one month with not allowing family or its member to see the process and revealed only after the complete makeover was finished.

Saida was an integral part of the show's success, and she was able to showcase her talent and expertise in interior design. Saida worked collaboratively with the crew members and was able to contribute valuable ideas and insights that helped to enhance the overall quality of the show. She demonstrated exceptional professionalism, dedication, and a passion for interior design throughout the show. She was able to handle the pressure of working within very tight deadlines and delivered outstanding results consistently.

She is highly skilled and talented professional who consistently delivers outstanding results. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
