Haunted House

In my dream, I was in a haunted house with Laverne & Shirley. I was being chased by a vampire. I remember running down a big hall lined with plastic and jumping out of a two-story window. When I jumped out of the window, I hit the ground and leaped over a fence. By no means am I afraid of vampires. but I am afraid of haunted houses. The house is still so clear to me. It was big, gray, with black shutters and a red door. It was sooo creepy!!!

Thank You, Kelli C.

Hi Kelli,

Haunted house in dreams signifies repressed memories and unacknowledged feelings. The gray color and black shutters of the house all lend to the mysteriousness and dreariness of the house. The red door is significant for the color red symbolizes life energy (blood), fiery passion, and anger. The door is one of the livelier aspects of the house. Your eye is immediately drawn to the door, inviting you to come in. Your dream seems to suggest that you need to pay more attention to these repressed feelings. Vampires also represents life energy. After all, they thrive on the blood of humans. Additionally, they signify aggression and lust. Vampires themselves are mysterious and denote unacknowledged parts of your mind. You said it yourself that you are not afraid of the vampire, but fearful of the haunted house. Houses in dreams represent the Self. In particular, haunted houses mean the rejected or repressed parts of the Self. What you are afraid of may be confronting these aspects of yourself. The Vampire may function as the guard of the house who prevents you from exploring it. Little is mention of Laverne and Shirley other than they were in the haunted house. Were they being chased as well? Why are they in the haunted house? Could they represent somebody from the past who you want to forget? Let's not forget that Laverne and Shirley are sitcom characters who make us laugh. Their appearance in your dream may be an attempt to lighten the mood of your creepy dream.

Crooked Teeth

I keep having this recurring dream where my teeth are not straight. I try to straighten them and they pull out, but aren't attached to the root. I don't know what this means. I have had orthodontic work before. I have had this dream about 6 times recently.

Thank You, Matt T.

Hi Matt,

Your recurring dreams about your teeth not being straight is an indication of your struggles with perfection. You may be feeling inadequate about some relationship or social situation. The notion that your teeth are not attached to the roots, suggests that you do not have a solid foundation in achieving your goals. This may stem from your own lack of self-confidence.

Best Regards, Steve

Aries - Your January Monthly Forecast: Are you feeling feisty? Hungry? Ready to take on a sprint and be first over the line? If you're not, then get ready! As Mars returns to Aries, it helps to ensure a continuation of the momentum created by Uranus' change of direction in your sign. It's the promise of petrol in your tank and extra oomph in your batteries. With the road stretching so invitingly before you, you'll need to slow down for corners and watch out for bumps. The coming eclipses bring you an invitation to excel. Every effort you expend should bring a noticeable gain. There is so much to hope for and look forward to.

Taurus - Your January Monthly Forecast: Since Taurus is an earth sign, when the January Supermoon Eclipse arrives in the part of the sky that represents your roots and emotional foundations, it's in comfortingly familiar territory. Your dilemma this month, stems from the creative link it forms to your ruler Venus, just as Venus converges with Jupiter and links with etherial Neptune. As you focus on creating some stability in your life, you'll find yourself being pulled to explore a fantasy. Just bear in mind that the right opportunity asks only what you can afford to willingly give.

Gemini - Your January Monthly Forecast: Just because Mercury is leaving your opposite sign doesn't mean that you should shift your focus away from key relationships. A sociable start to your new year bodes well for strengthening a rapport and sealing your reputation as someone who is both fun and reliable. With so much generous goodwill on offer, just make sure that you don't get carried away with enthusiasm and overlook the efforts made by someone whose opinion you value. If you recognise the faith you're being shown this month, you'll be rewarded in kind. There is so much to hope for and look forward to.

Cancer - Your January Monthly Forecast: Even though Cancerians are affected by lunar variations more than any other sign, it's not quite as simple as 'Super Moon: super you'. There's no need to rush out into the sales shopping for undergarments to wear over your clothes and a superhero mask! Yet, as the January Eclipses take shape, with a swoop of activity you'll be able to turn parts of your life around and reconfigure an important relationship. If that sounds a little more like the I.T. department than The Avengers, as you'll soon prove, heroes don't always wear capes!

Leo - Your January Monthly Forecast: With the Sun moving into your opposite sign, many of the celestial signposts indicate that this month is all about you. The Supermoon Eclipse takes place in Leo, and your ruler plays an important part in two major celestial events. So, although there's plenty to keep everyone entertained, there's little doubt who's the star of the show! Being in the limelight means having to justify being the centre of attention. Yet your creativity and charm suggest that you'll rise to the occasion. You're a natural, so let that shine through!

Virgo - Your January Monthly Forecast: The year starts as it means to go on, with the focus on creativity and friendship. Mercury, your ruling planet, moves into your fifth solar house, which is traditionally associated with the Leo theme of generosity. With the Sun being the focus of so much celestial attention as it forms two Eclipses, it creates several lovely aspect patterns with your ruler, emphasising the cosmic gifts on offer. You can mix creativity with precision, and playfulness with productivity. Use these gifts well, and January will be a blessing that takes you very far indeed.

Libra - Your January Monthly Forecast: The Supermoon Eclipse isn't the only star of the show in the celestial theatre in January. Venus and Jupiter are also staging a display. Even though they don't have quite the same star-power, as your ruler and the planet of adventure converge, they put you at centre stage. Take any chance you can to share your feelings, and be generous with your trusting heart. As long as you act with consideration and generosity, you'll find an appreciative audience, and reviews that will stand you in good stead for the rest of the year.

Scorpio - Your January Monthly Forecast: This month, your traditional ruler Mars moves into a sector of the zodiac where its power is unfettered. Add this to the impact made as the Sun converges with your modern ruler Pluto, and the signs are good for any Scorpios looking to make an impact at the start of the year. Yet, no one will make you come off the bench and take control of the game. You can take your time, and watch a situation unfold. But when the cosmos gifts you with power, it's hard to justify sitting on the sidelines. And this month, there's plenty worth playing for.

Sagittarius - Your January Monthly Forecast: As Sagittarius prepares to host the first exact Venus-Jupiter conjunction since 1995, it's time to consider how you'd like this significant moment to affect your life. Now I know that asking a Sagittarian to plan ahead is a little like asking a cat to swim. You can do it, but you'd rather use your reflexes on the fly to avoid choppy waters. But as 2019's important Jupiter-Neptune journey sets sail in January, you can dream big and be inspired. The Supermoon Eclipse brings an opportunity to change an attractive idea into an enviable outcome.

Capricorn - Your January Monthly Forecast: According to the textbooks, Capricorns are realists... not prone to flights of fantasy or to chasing mirages. But don't let anyone suggest that you're unimaginative. You're just as capable of being creative as impressionistic Pisces; and as empathetic as caring Cancerians. It's just that you like your playfulness to have an end-product, and know that your investment will lead to an increase in good fortune. As January rolls by, you can afford to let your hair down. Your hard work begins to pay off, with surprisingly positive results.

Aquarius - Your January Monthly Forecast: My young son was shocked when he found out my age. 'So, next year you'll be a million-thousand and you'll explode!' he gasped. As far as predictions go, it looks as if there's work to do before he follows me into the family business! But with the arrival of a Supermoon Eclipse as we approach your birthday, things are primed and ready to go off! There's no need to worry about spontaneous combustion, though. As Uranus begins to move in tandem with the rest of the cosmos, it launches progress that will set January alight.

Pisces - Your January Monthly Forecast: 2019 will be quite a year for Pisceans. Your twin rulers, Jupiter and Neptune (both in their celestial homes) create a dynamic relationship which really gets going just as this month's Supermoon Eclipse arrives. So, if you were thinking that you could take your foot off the gas now that Mars is leaving your sign, you might well be disappointed! Yet, what January lacks in relaxation, it will more than make up for in opportunity. Saturn's presence assures that the effort you make now will create solid foundations for a successful year.
