DEREK CORNELIUS

DEREK CORNELIUS SQUARE UNVEILED

AJAX, ON — June 17, 2026 — As Derek Cornelius takes the field for Canada, his hometown is honouring one of its own. On Thursday, June 18, the Town of Ajax will unveil Derek Cornelius Square, celebrating the Ajax-raised member of Canada's Men's National Team, and host a free watch party as Canada faces Qatar at the FIFA World Cup™.

"When Medallion built Pat Bayly Square, we hoped it would become a hub for our residents and the residents of Ajax to gather," said Yvonne Yorke, Regional Property Manager, Medallion

Corporation. "Seeing the community come together to cheer on Derek is exactly what we hoped for. We're proud to present free events so families can celebrate close to home."

Ajax Council voted on June 16 to temporarily rename the square for the tournament. The 5:30 p.m. ceremony at 55 Bayly Street features formal remarks, the unveiling of a new chalk mural renaming the square, and a video message from Cornelius. His sister will accept on the family's behalf before the big-screen watch party.

For GTA fans, the renamed Derek Cornelius Square is a place to watch Canada close to home. Matchday screenings June 18 and 24 are free, open to all and an opportunity to take in the action on the big screen alongside fellow fans.

"Derek Cornelius' journey from Ajax to the international stage is an incredible source of pride for our community," said Shaun Collier, Mayor and CEO, Town of Ajax. "Renaming this space in his honour celebrates not only his achievements, but also the dedication, perseverance and hometown spirit he represents. We're excited to bring residents and visitors together at Derek Cornelius Square to cheer on Team Canada and celebrate this historic moment."

Medallion built the square as a place for the community to gather — and this week it becomes exactly that, as the town comes together to cheer one of its own on the world's stage.
