Whitby announces new incentive to support rental housing

A special Whitby Council meeting on August 26, has approved two targeted strategies – one aimed at supporting more purpose-built rental housing – and the second aimed at boosting its hotel and conference centre plan.

To encourage purpose-built rental housing starts, council approved a program that will discount the town's residential development charges by up to 50 per cent and allow them to be paid over 10 years following occupancy.

Council also approved a 50 per cent development charge discount for applicants of the town's hotel and conference centre attraction program.

Expanding both the supply and range of housing options in our community and bringing a much-needed hotel and conference centre to Whitby and are both priorities in Whitby's 2023-2026 community strategic plan, said Mayor Elizabeth Roy. The measures approved by council are particularly important in today's challenging construction climate, said a mayoral statement.

Nascar truck racing returns to Clarington after 7-year hiatus

After a 7 year absence, Nascar Craftsman Truck Series (NCTS) is coming back to Clarington for the 2027 racing schedule.

NCTS is a pickup truck racing series owned and operated by Nascar.

The series will be racing at Canadian Tire Motorsport Park for tens of thousands of race fans from across Canada and the northern United States.

“This news has the community excited and impatient. It’s like hearing Christmas is coming but not until next year. We’re going to have a hard time waiting for the 2027 Labour Day weekend,” said Clarington Mayor Adrian Foster. He welcomed the Nascar Craftsman Truck Series crew back to Clarington and added that “we look forward to the races.”
