

Florida Mental Health Advocacy Coalition MEMBERSHIP LEVELS and BENEFITS 2024-25

Your annual membership contribution allows FLMHAC to continue and grow in its advocacy for Florida's family members and peers affected by behavioral health conditions. Please select one of the two membership options below and complete the membership form on page 2. Basic membership in FLMHAC does not require a contribution, but contributions are needed to continue our advocacy work. Thank you!

☐ Basic Membership Benefits for All Participating Organization and Individual Members

This membership is free, but please consider a donation of any amount.

- Participation in our weekly Zoom meetings during the legislative session, and bi-weekly meetings throughout the rest of the year
- FLMHAC e-blasts – Legislative Updates and Alerts and general information on behavioral health topics
- Opportunity to participate in the FLMHAC's annual Legislative Priorities Survey
- For organizational members that participate actively in FLMHAC meetings, the opportunity to vote for FLMHAC board members and other organizational decisions.
- Customizable flyer based on the Legislative Priorities Survey, for your members and policymakers
- FLMHAC Behavioral Health Day Event at the Capitol!

☐ FLMHAC POWER ADVOCATES Membership

Includes all the benefits of Basic Membership PLUS:

- Customized presentations to your organization's members, boards and/or volunteers on advocacy, particular legislative issues or updates, our legislative platform, etc.
- Direct connection with both NAMI and MHA national advocacy.
- A Local Legislative Member user-friendly spreadsheet, for ease in contacting your local representatives. List will include Legislative Aides.
- Templates and talking points on pending legislative issues for your organization to use in your specific communications.
- At least one exclusive Zoom meeting for Power Advocate organizations (for all their members) with our lobbyist, Robby Holroyd.
- Advice and assistance to start and build local advocacy groups.
