

Save the Date!

Palermo Power Systems and Runtime Battery Systems will be hosting a UPS 101 learning seminar at 9AM, Thursday, January 18, 2018 addressing everything critical power. Attendance and Lunch are complimentary!

Topics to be discussed include:

1. Terminologies and Labels
2. Single Phase -VS- Three Phase
3. UPS Topologies and Application Requirements
4. Calculating UPS Loads – What should and should never be on a UPS
5. UPS and Inverters – What’s the difference?
6. Bypass Panels – Operation and Design
7. Battery Chemistries: Design Specifications and Targeted Applications
8. Calculating Battery Runtimes – Expectations and Reality
9. System Maintenance – Define Major/Minor/Quarterly
10. System Monitoring – Benefits, ROI and Compliance
11. Design Life and Service Life – Why are they different?
12. Factors that Impact Battery Systems & Resulting Consequences
13. Accessories – SOS Cabinets, Spill Containment, TVSS, Sensors
14. Refurbished, Refresh and Replacement – Pros & Cons
15. EPA Certified Recycling – How does it work?

Seminar and Lunch Location:
Papa Mazzotti's Italian Restaurant
2252 Lake Avenue
Thornton, CO 80234
(303) 255-8612

Lunch will also be provided!

Jill Palermo
Palermo Power Systems & Integration
jill@palermopowersystems.com
(720) 289-1162

Reserve your spot today!

Tony Airozo
Runtime Battery Systems
tairozo@runtimebatterysystems.com
(303) 704-2412

Please feel free forward to anyone interested in attending!