Dear Friends, Enthusiasts, and Loyal Customers:

We are announcing today that after serving our community for many years with Mattlin Hyde Piano Company, my family and I have elected to exit the music retail business.

I am pleased to announce that our valued sales team and support staff will be remaining at the Pinecrest Shopping Center, as our instruments have been acquired by the Kawai Piano Gallery.

Our company has also been in the process of relocating into a new 5,000 square foot retail space, expanding the showroom, and returning a recital stage for local performances. Still under construction, the new showroom is expected to be completed in October of 2022 at Pinecrest.

Kawai Piano Gallery will continue to operate in a temporary store while this renovation is being completed.

With new showrooms here in Cleveland, Detroit, and the Columbus markets, you can find details, hours of operation, or new information on our website(s) at: www.mattlinhydepiano.com or at www.kpgohio.com

We are very grateful for your support over the years and look forward to many of the new and exciting opportunities that will come from the new operators here in Cleveland. Thank you

Sincerely,
