

Vedic Astrology PHD Program

First semester

1	Vedic Philology- section I: - Familiarity with the Bhagavad Gita, translated by Radha Krishnan	4
2	Introduction to Jung's Analytical Psychology- section I : Emphasis on the discussion of conscious, unconscious, and of shadows and persona in its application to Jyotish Charts.	2
3	Vargas(Subtle divisions)	2
Total		8

Second semester

1	Vedic Philology- section II: Emphasis will be on the Upanishads and comparative analysis of concepts such as Atma and Jivatma which are important in chart analysis from the point of view of Jyotish.	2
2	Introduction to Jung's Analytical Psychology -section II: Analysis of Archetypal concept and its adaptation and relevancy to Jyotish Charts.	2
3	Myths and Vedic Mythology -section I:	2
4	Ashtakavarga	2
Total		8

Third semester

1	Vedic Philology –section III : Focus on Patanjali's Yoga sutras.	2
2	Introduction to Jung's Analytical Psychology – section III : Analysis of Anima, Animus, and Psychological Types and its adaptation and relevance to Jyotish charts.	2
3	Introduction to Sanskrit	2
4	Muhurta (Astrology of Election)	2
Total		8

Forth semester

1	Vedic Philology section IV: Emphasis on the discussions of Parasharapura Shastra	2
2	Introduction to Jung's Analytical Psychology – section IV Self-Study to the Process of Individuality.	2
3	Myths and Vedic Mythology -section II:	2
4	Tajika and Prashna (Horary astrology)	2
Total		8

Fifth semester

1	Vedic Philology –section V: Emphasis on the texts of Tajaka and Sarawali.	2
2	Synastry and Relationship Astrology	2
3	Medical Astrology	2
4	Remedial measures	2
Total		8

Sixth semester

1	Thesis	8
Total		8