

Frequently asked Questions for Donations To Accessibility Bridge Corporation

Help those in need by donating new items to The Accessibility Bridge Corporation. We accept product donations from corporations, organizations, and individuals nationwide, including items that are misprinted or over-stocked. These donations are sorted and then redistributed to our clients and their families throughout the United States.

1. How do I donate products?

Send an email to: donate@accessibilitybridge.com to let us know what you're sending and when we should expect. Please ensure there is a contact name included in the event we need to follow up with you.

Mail the items to: Accessibility Bridge Corporation
4662 Crain Hwy, #1622
White Plains, MD 20695

2. What products do you accept?

We accept unused clothing, shoes, office supplies, school supplies, software, non-perishable food, personal care & hygiene supplies, paper products, cleaning supplies, school supplies, gift cards, household items, baby products and more!

We also seek items that are specific to people with disabilities to assist with educational and digital equity such as accessible/programmable technology (chrome books, laptops, monitors, noise canceling headphones, moveable chairs, etc)

Due to the enormous variety of items we accept, we cannot make a conclusive list. Feel free to email us at donate@accessibilitybridge.com or call us at 202.871.5522 with any questions.

3. What will my donation support?

Your donation will directly support any of our programs and initiatives, depending upon what your donated items are. If you'd like to donate to a specific program or initiative, please indicate your preference in your email.

4. Is my contribution tax-deductible?

The Accessibility Bridge Corporation is a federally recognized 501(c)(3) public charity; therefore, your contribution may be tax-deductible. Please check with your tax adviser to find out more.

5. What is The Accessibility Bridge Corporation's Employer Identification Number (EIN), also known as a Federal Tax Identification Number?
