

CONTENTS

The Relationship between International Economic Law and Public International Law: The Role of Self-Contained Regimes Donald McRae	1
Multilateral Development Banks, Their Member States and Public Accountability: A Proposal Daniel D. Bradlow	21
Export-Linked Subsidies in Apparels: India, USA and the WTO Arpita Mukherjee, Angana Parashar Sarma, Soham Sinha.	38
The International Bar Association and Trade in Legal Services: Meta Law-Making in International Economic Law? David Collins	57
Significance of International Investment Arbitration in India's Efforts Toward Instituting A Robust Regulatory Regime Anujay Shrivastava, Kaustubh Kapoor	82
Investment Facilitation in the WTO Multilateral Agenda: Drawing Lessons From the EU-India IFM Maria Laura Marceddu	112

The Developments of ISDS Mechanism Initiated by the EU Investment Court System and China’s Choice
Liang Yong, Zhao Daiwei 127

The Developing Trend of the World ISDS Mechanism:
Echoes from China and the Approaches to Be Adopted
Xiao Wei 166

Hanging in the Balance: The Prohibition of
Protectionism in Article III and XX of the GATT
1994 in Light of the “Inherent Balance” Theory
Marios Tokas 195