Theatre Baton Rouge Is Proud To Present Our

77TH SEASON

Welcome to Theatre Baton Rouge's 77th Season!! We are thrilled to announce our exciting Season line-up, as well as share with you some of the wonderful opportunities coming up at Theatre Baton Rouge, for audience members and volunteers alike!

Our Capital Series includes five wonderful, diverse productions, all taking place on our Main Stage. We will kick off the 77th Season Capital Series in November with America's favorite creepy, wacky family, The Addams Family (A New Musical). Following this, we will present our 11th Annual December production of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol – but this year, instead of being part of our Holiday Series, it's part of our Capital Series! Calling all fans of 80s rock anthems and power ballads! In March, we'll be presenting the five-time Tony Award nominated Broadway musical smash, Rock of Ages! Following this in April/May will be Ken Ludwig's hilarious adaptation of Agatha Christie's classic murder mystery, Murder on the Orient Express. Finally, we are excited to share that we'll be ending our Capital Series in June with Elle Woods in Legally Blonde. Our 77th Season Capital Series offers something for everyone!

As a complement to our Capital Series, The Turner-Fischer City Series offers a wide range of theatre with two contemporary, thought-provoking productions. Join us in September in our Studio Theatre for John Patrick Shanley's potent moral drama, Doubt: A Parable. In January, we'll present the regional premiere of the Mart Crowley's Tony Award winning play, The Boys in the Band.

In addition to the Capital and City Series, we offer other opportunities for people of all ages. The Rocky Horror Show will be back in October - let's do the time warp again! Join us for one last trip to Frank's castle before The Rocky Horror Show takes a little sabbatical. Another annual tradition continues with two productions from our Young Actors Program: the musical, The Wizard of Oz, based on the MGM film, which for the fourth year in a row, will take place on our Main Stage, this time in August, and Louisa May Alcott's classic story of the March sisters. Little Women. We also offer classes and workshops year-round as well as summer camps for children and adults of all ages. For more information, call our box office at 225-924-6496, or visit our website at theatrebr.org.

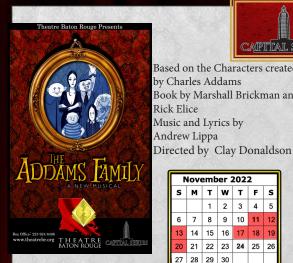

Theatre Baton Rouge is proud to serve as the place where residents of the greater Baton Rouge area come together to create theatre for the community, by the community. Ticket sales account for only 60% of our overall operating expenses, and as a non-profit theatre company, we rely on the generosity of people like you to make our programming successful. As you renew your subscription or join us as a subscriber for the first time, we ask that you consider making a tax-deductible donation to our Annual Fund – we need your help more than ever, as we continue our work towards recovery from the devastating impacts of COVID-19.

For those of you who already contribute annually, thank you so much! Your efforts are greatly appreciated. We do hope that you'll continue to contribute, and perhaps even consider increasing your donation during this time of restoration and recovery. Please consider supporting Theatre Baton Rouge. Thank you for your support!
