Thomas Family Taste is a minority-owned, female-run business based in New York. Co-founder Jayla Thomas uses her grandmother Shirley Thomas's recipes to create, produce, and sell Caribbean-inspired spices and sauces to the United States. Shirley's Scarborough Spice, the first sauce of many, is a hot pepper sauce that is now available for purchase via website or DM.

Now let me be real... I'm not typical spice or hot sauce person, but I have tried this hot sauce and it really is good!!!! Its not too spicy and its packed with flavor!!! Mrs. Shirley herself was at my launch party doing a taste test back in September and everyone was loving Scarborough Spice Hot Sauce!! Shout out to the Thomas Family! Love yall

Get yours today!!! Contact me for a taste tester sample.
