

A Hospital in a Fairytale World

The Okryu Children's Hospital in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea is a place where children receive medical treatment without feeling pain as it is laid out like a fairytale world.

Children at the Pyongyang Orphanage

These are children at Pyongyang Orphanage, as happy as children with their parents.

Okryu Children's Hospital

The Korean children are enjoying free medical service in the Okryu Children's Hospital furnished with advanced medical facilities and the telemedicine.

For the Life and Health of Children

Greeting the Children's Health Day in May and November every year, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea conducts intensive disease-prevention activities aimed at the protection and promotion of the lives and health of children and their healthy growth.