

Home of Happiness

A Korean girl at Pyongyang Primary School for Orphans smiles presenting a picture of her school. The DPRK has built such facilities across the country and provides them with all conditions for orphans to grow up healthily and free from worries.