

Kimchi-making practice in Korea

In the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, it is a commonplace in November to see families making kimchi, their traditional food.

In spite of the current industrial production of kimchi in the country, many enjoy making it by themselves as in the past.

The kimchi-making was registered on the list of world intangible cultural heritage.

Kayagum*, Traditional Musical Instrument of Korea

This is kayagum, a musical instrument of the Korean nation, invented 1 500 years ago.

As the sounds are elastic, soft and elegant, the structure is simple, the bridge is movable for adjusting sounds, the methods of its execution are varied and it is easy to learn, the Korean women still enjoy playing the instrument.

Carpet from the DPRK

Carpets made in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea are drawing people’s attention for its high quality and elegant and delicate colours and shapes. What draws their special attention is the fact that they are made with natural resources produced in natural environment free from pollution.