

Sunrise in Samjiyon

This is the city of Samjiyon, situated at a height of more than one thousand metres above sea level in the northernmost part of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

Built as a model socialist cultured city encapsulating modern civilization, it looks most beautiful at sunrise.

Winter Scenery of the Picturesque Taedong River

This is winter scenery of the Taedong, which meanders through the central part of Pyongyang. A flock of mallards and buildings add to the beauty of the city.
