

Second-day Sitting of 4th Plenary Meeting of 8th WPK Central Committee Held

Pyongyang, December 29 (KCNA) -- There was the second-day sitting of the 4th Plenary Meeting of the 8th Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea for indicating the new fighting guidelines for the prosperity of the country amid high political enthusiasm of the participants.

In the wake of reviewing the execution of major Party and state policies for 2021 and discussing issues related to the work plan for the New Year at the first-day sitting, the plenary meeting mainly dealt with the immediate tasks for the proper solution to socialist rural questions on Tuesday.

At the first-day sitting, General Secretary Kim Jong Un made a historic conclusion "On Direction of Party and State Work for 2022". And at the second-day sitting, he made a historic report of important significance in the socialist rural development.

He set forth medium- and long-term development strategies and major tasks for attaining the grand goal of rural development in line with the realistic conditions and the requirement of the times for the overall development of our style socialist construction, before advancing detailed ways for its implementation and taking important revolutionary measures.

The new programme on socialist rural construction won full support and approval by the participants in the meeting as it indicated the most scientific and revolutionary path for the solution to rural question in our country at present.

The meeting is continuing the discussion of the agenda items referred to it.

(2021.12.29)

