

Day-Care Centre for Children at Factory

Workers of the Pyongyang Kim Jong Suk Silk Mill in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea are going home with their children after a day's work.

As every industrial enterprise in the country has a nursery, kindergarten and clinic, women workers are engaged in worthwhile labour without feeling any worry.

Orphans Grow Up Cheerfully

Under the special concern of the ruling Workers' Party of Korea and the government of the Republic, orphans in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea grow up cheerfully without feeling any worry at the institutions of learning built exclusively for them.
