

Songbul Temple

Songbul Temple, a historical site in Mt Jongbang, Sariwon City, North Hwanghae Province, the DPRK, was first built in 898 and rebuilt during the Koryo dynasty (918-1392). It comprises Kungnak Hall and other buildings, plus a five-storey stone pagoda built in the period of the Koryo dynasty.