

Greeting the International Day of Older Persons

Greeting the International Day of Older Persons, the autumn sports games of elderly persons were held in the Pyongyang Indoor Stadium.

Filled with passion and vigour though they are in the twilight years of their life, the old players displayed their skills to the full for the victory of their own teams.

The games attracted the interest of the spectators.

The International Day of Older Persons Celebrated in the DPRK

The elderly in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea greeted the International Day of Older Persons that falls on October 1.

Thanks to the policy of the Workers' Party of Korea and the government of the Republic on the care of the elderly, they are enjoying the remaining years of their life without any worry, receiving respect and preferential treatment accorded to them by their family members, neighbours and other people of society.

Spending the day while enjoying various cultural and leisure activities

Artistic performances staged in the capital city and in other regions on the day

