

Korean Children's Union Members on Their Holiday

Members of the Korean Children's Union held colourful events throughout the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on June 6 in celebration of the 77th anniversary of their organization. The annual event included artistic performances and sports and amusement games.

The country enforces universal 12-year compulsory education.

An artistic performance held in Kaesong

A scene from the artistic performance Our Benevolent Sun given by schoolchildren at the Mangyongdae Schoolchildren's Palace in Pyongyang

Korean schoolchildren displaying their talents at artistic performances

A scene from the sports contest of revolutionary schools-2023

Children with Disabilities Celebrate International Children's Day in the DPRK

On June 1, children with disabilities in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea celebrated the International Children's Day.

Those in the capital city of Pyongyang gave a colourful artistic performance and had pleasant sports and amusement games in the gymnasium of the Taedonggang District Juvenile Sports School in the city.

Children with disabilities giving an artistic performance and having sports and amusement games in the gymnasium of the Taedonggang District Juvenile Sports School on June 1

A girl with a disability singing

Children with disabilities beating the drum