

Moving to New Homes Continues in Pyongyang

Last May saw the inauguration of residential quarters in the Taepyeong area in the suburbs of Pyongyang, consisting of different shapes of multi-storied and highrise apartment buildings, schools, clinics and neighbourhood-serving amenities, which all go in good harmony with one another.

People moved to new homes in the area in happiness, which have been provided by the state free of charge.

