

Noble Tribute

On national holidays and other important occasions the Korean people habitually visit the statues of President Kim Il Sung (1912-1994) and Chairman Kim Jong Il (1942-2011) on Mansu Hill, the Revolutionary Martyrs Cemetery on Mt Taesong and similar places. Paying tribute to the revolutionary martyrs who sacrificed themselves for the liberation and prosperity of the country, young people renew their resolve to value the glorious and dignified history of their country and exalt its brilliance generation after generation.

Korean people visit Mansu Hill.

Buried in the Revolutionary Martyrs Cemetery on Mt Taesong are revolutionaries who sacrificed their lives for the restoration of the country and the freedom and emancipation of the people.

The Korean people educate their children to learn after the ennobling spirit and intentions of martyrs.
