

Visitors to the Fatherland Liberation War Martyrs Cemetery

War veterans, working people and youths visited the Fatherland Liberation War Martyrs Cemetery and paid noble tribute to the martyrs in celebration of the 70th anniversary of victory in the Korean war (1950-1953). Among them were children with their parents, holding flowers in their hands.

War veterans and students pay noble tribute to the martyrs.

War veterans in front of their old comrades-in-arm

Schoolgirls lay flowers at the grave of a martyr.

A boy lays a flower on the memorial symbol.

War Veterans Leading Columns in Military Parade

The military parade, held in Pyongyang, the capital city of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, on July 27, Juche 112 (2023), in celebration of the 70th anniversary of victory in the Korean war (1950-1953), started with the entering by the symbolic columns led by war veterans.

War veterans were full of pride and dignity in having smashed the imperialists' armed invasion and achieved victory in the war.

War veterans lead the parading columns with pride and dignity in having defended the country's sovereignty and prestige.

A war veteran leads the symbolic column of young and adult guerrillas, conveying the history of war in which all the people turned out in the fight against the aggressors.