

Feats of Tank No. 312

Tank No. 312 on display at the open-air weapons exhibition of the Victorious Fatherland Liberation War Museum in the DPRK's capital city of Pyongyang

Tank No. 312 storming into the "Capitol building" of the ROK regime

The national flag of the DPRK flutters over the “Capitol building” of the ROK regime.

Tank No. 312 was the first to thrust into the ROK’s capital, Seoul, in the battle to liberate the city during the Fatherland Liberation War (1950-1953). Hero of the DPRK Ko Hyon Bin, leader of the tank’s firing team, hoisted the national flag of the DPRK over the “Capitol building” of the ROK regime.