Orphans Conducting Extracurricular Activities

Children engage in extracurricular activities at Hamhung Primary School for Orphans in the DPRK. The school is fully provided with all living and teaching conditions so that the students can acquire skills to their heart's content according to their hobbies and aptitudes.