Trazos Textiles: María Ortega and Yosi Anaya

Prelude to the XI WTA Bienal

Curated by International Curatorship and Pilar Tobón

Miami, FL – Miami International Fine Arts (MIFA) is delighted to present Trazos Textiles, a captivating exhibition featuring the works of María Ortega and Yosi Anaya. Curated by International Curatorship and Pilar Tobón, this compelling dialogue between two artists runs from December 4-20, 2024, with an opening reception on Wednesday, December 4th, from 6 to 9 PM.

Trazos Textiles bridges the thematic worlds of Ortega and Anaya, exploring the equilibrium of our planet through the continual flow and interaction of two essential elements: Earth and Water. Though approached from different personal perspectives, both artists delve into the interconnectedness of nature through the medium of fiber art.

María Ortega immerses herself in the movements of the planet's water, capturing its essence and rhythm. Yosi Anaya connects deeply with the Earth, drawing inspiration from the creatures that inhabit its surface. Their artistic expressions converge in an internal dialogue that reflects the natural forces shaping our world.

This exhibition serves as a prelude to the XI WTA Bienal, celebrating the transformative power of fiber art in addressing global themes and fostering connections between artists and the natural world.
