"Inner Worlds, Outer Realities": An Artistic Exploration by Gabriel da Silva and Ricky Vior at MIFA

"Lifting the Veil: Discover 'Inner Worlds, Outer Realities' with Gabriel da Silva and Ricky Vior at MIFA"

Miami, FL – From May 4th to 29th, 2024, Miami International Fine Arts (MIFA) is proud to present "Inner Worlds, Outer Realities", an exhibition that delves into the complexities of the human being through the introspective works of Gabriel da Silva and Ricky Vior. Curated by Melani Liriano and Eli Medrano, the exhibition addresses how the fragmented parts of ourselves manifest both internally and externally in our daily lives.

Gabriel da Silva offers us an evocative journey through the emotions and narratives that reside in the mental figures we construct. From the tender vulnerability of internal struggles to the fierce battles against personal demons, Silva's works playfully capture the essence of the human experience, each piece like a hurricane of emotions and imagination.

Complementing Silva, Ricky Vior explores the dissociated feelings we face in the external world. Through bold strokes and vivid imagery, Vior challenges viewers to confront the emotions that often lurk beneath the surface of everyday interactions. His works act as mirrors reflecting the fragmented and often one-sided nature of our perceptions and the layers of disconnection that exist between ourselves and our surroundings.

Inspired by parenthood, both artists incorporate vibrant colors and characters that remind us of the lives we shared in childhood, guiding us in our passage to adulthood. This exploration invites us to rediscover the wonder and innocence of youth, and to contemplate the continuous construction and deconstruction as we engage with society.
