"Uterior/Uterior": Exploring the Tensions and Transcendence in the Work of Nicasio Andrade at MIFA

Miami, FL – Miami International Fine Arts (MIFA) proudly presents "Uterior/Uterior," an exhibition that delves into the intricate world of Nicasio Andrade. From July 6-27, 2024, opening July 6 from 4 to 8pm This show highlights Andrade's dynamic interplay between graphic design and art, exploring the compelling tensions that define his creative process.

"Uterior/Uterior" showcases a collection of digital collages, drawings, and weavings that emerge from Andrade's exploration of manual and digital processes, and his reflection on ancestral influences, particularly the Wayuu culture from his native Maracaibo. The exhibition captures the essence of Andrade's practice: a continuous search that transcends initial goals and finds expression in the silence that follows the creative act.

About Nicasio Andrade: Nicasio Andrade, born in Venezuela and based in Brooklyn, is a versatile artist with a journey spanning art, design, and illustration. His innovative work has earned him accolades, including two Best Design awards at the National Graphic Design Salon of Venezuela. In 2023, Andrade presented "Ininteligible ≈ Unintelligible" in Maracaibo, exploring cultural identity through calligraphy and symbols. This July, he will showcase a new exhibition at Miami International Fine Arts Gallery.

About Miami International Fine Arts (MIFA): Miami International Fine Arts is a hub of artistic innovation and celebration in Miami, dedicated to inclusivity and collaboration, and strengthening community ties through art.
