About Compendium

In Compendium, Alex Pineco invites audiences to traverse a world shaped by maps, memories, and the converging paths of a life immersed in art. The centerpiece of this exhibition, CROSSROADS, stems from Pineco's lifelong fascination with maps, which he uses to explore the defining moments and choices that have shaped his personal and artistic journey.

Pineco describes his work as a visual dialogue between cities and cultures: “Compendium is a presentation of past and present reflections, where Paris meets Valencia (Ven.), where Miami dialogues with Madrid. It reflects the multiple choices presented at a crossroads—each one leading to new possibilities and paths to be explored.”

Through intricate compositions that evoke the structure and symbolism of maps, Pineco examines how art becomes the nucleus around which life flourishes, much like a park at the center of an old town.
