The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, Indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a Perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its Flag and to defend it against all enemies.

—William Tyler Page

The C.A. R. Creed

I believe in the Children of the American Revolution as an organization for the training of young people in true patriotism and love of country in order that they shall be better fitted for American citizenship.

As a descendant of the Founders of my Country, I believe that my birthright brings a responsibility to carry on their work, and that as the boys and girls of 1776 took an active part in the War for Independence, so the boys and girls of today have a definite work to do for their Country.

As a member of the Children of the American Revolution, I believe it is my duty to use my influence to create a deeper love of country, a loyal respect for its Constitution and reverence for its flag,
among the young people with whom I come in contact.||

—Ethel Vance Moser

Object of the C.A.R.

The Object of this Society shall be:

1. To acquire knowledge of American History.
2. To preserve and restore places of Historical importance associated with men and women who forwarded American Independence.
3. To ascertain the deeds and honor the memories of the men, women and children who rendered service to the cause of the American Revolution.
4. To promote the celebration of patriotic anniversaries.
5. To honor and cherish the Flag of the United States of America above every other flag.
6. To love, uphold and extend the principles of American liberty and patriotism.

C.A.R. Mission Statement

The National Society of the Children of the American Revolution trains good citizens, develops leaders, and promotes love of the United States of America and its heritage among young people.

C.A.R. Motto

For God and Country.

2021-2022 State and National Projects

The 2021-2022 C.A.R. State Project, supporting National Parks in Washington State. Over $8,500 net over expenses has been raised so far. This will assist in trail maintenance and education programs that suffer when taxpayer funding is decreased. Parks can be supported by buying an annual park pass, and educating our members about the parks.

The National Project, "Keeping Everyone on the Move", partners with the Oscar Mike Foundation that hosts adaptive sporting clinics for veterans with physical disabilities. The project includes both raising funds to support an Oscar Mike "11 Strong" for kids and to promote suicide awareness for veterans.

The C.A.R. Song

We're members of the C.A.R.,
A great and mighty band.
We pledge our might for the cause of right,
For home and native land.

Chorus:

We love thee Old Glory
And we ever strive to be
Most worthy descendants
Of worthy ancestry.
We love thee Old Glory
And our hearts are staunch and true.
We love each stripe and ev'ry star
Of our flag red, white, and blue.

Those great and noble patriots
Offered up their blood,
To save a new born nation
From a cruel tyrant's rod.

Chorus

The blue calls out to us, "Be true,"
The white calls out, "Be pure,"
The red, "Be brave, their blood they gave,
That this land might endure."

Chorus

—Martha Parkinson Mills

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines in the stream,
'Tis the star-spangled banner - O long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a Country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation!
Blest with vict'ry and peace may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto - —In God is our trust,||
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
—Francis Scott Key
