

Speaker Profile for:

Danika
Bendickson

WA C.A.R. President
2025-2026

Danika Bendickson is a lifetime member of the Children of the American Revolution, or “C.A.R.” She has served as Registrar and Historian and currently President of the Washington State C.A.R. Danika is also a member of the Princes Angeline society, C.A.R.

Danika is a resident of Renton, Washington and soon to be a freshmen at the Renton H.O.M.E program where she attends classes supported by homeschool activities. Along with her core classes she plays piano, is in drama, and choir. At home Danika focuses on reading, art, and working in the family blacksmith shop.

Danika also assists in teaching the national program Stop the Bleed around the community focusing on the public schools and those interested in medicine at college run programs. Danika can also be found performing German folk dancing with the ENZIAN troop and cosplaying for Costumed Characters for Causes which raises money for the Sarcoma foundation.

Danika is proud of her family’s military background- most recently her father serving two tours in Afghanistan. The WA C.A.R. project this year is a passion for her as it raises money for first responder and active-duty families for free photo HUGGEE dolls that will lesson separation anxiety in children.