To do this, the individual must be living the Catholic faith. The certificate is a sworn statement that attest you are actively attending mass, practice the catholic faith, and have received Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation. Our parish church is totally dependent upon your financial support and generosity. Without your generosity we as a parish church could not function. Unfortunately, it takes money and we must pay the bills like any other household. The only difference is that we are much, much bigger.

Please be generous with God's given treasure in supporting your parish church. Please consider tithing (5% of your income) if you have not done so in the past.

The Good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice.

The 2022 Annual Appeal

We invite all members of our parish community to join in support of our annual appeal. Our parish goal is $33,802.00.

JAK CZYTAĆ PISMO ŚWIĘTE?

Lectio divina – z jęz. łac. „Boże czytanie” polega na czytaniu Pisma Świętego, w świetle Ducha Świętego, w taki sposób, że przeczytane, poddane medytacji i przyjęte do realizacji Słowo Boże staje się prawdziwą modlitwą i przemienia nasze życie.

Od czego należałoby rozpocząć?

- Początkującym tradycja mówi: „Czytaj, czytaj i jeszcze raz czytaj Słowo Boże!”. Trzeba codziennie czytać fragment Pisma Świętego.
- Ojcowie starożytni podkreślali. Każde słowo ma znaczenie, kryje w sobie głębię treści, których nawet się nie spodziewamy. Obfitość zebranego słowa Bożego zależy od naszej żałyłości z nim.

Modlitwa do Ducha Świętego:

- Proś, aby Duch Boży otworzył cię na Słowo Boże – potrzebujemy, by On zstąpił do naszych serc i przemienił je i by otworzył Słowo Boże przed tobą – jest ono tajemnicą Boga. Do końca życia może zadziwiać nas Słowo, które czytaliśmy i medytowaliśmy wiele razy.

HOW TO READ SCRIPTURE?

Lectio divina from Lat. Divine reading- it is the reading of the Word of God in the light of the Holy Spirit; only in this way, after reading, meditating and putting it into practice, The Word of God becomes true prayer and changes our lives.

How to start?

- Tradition speaks to the beginners: “Read, read, and once again read God’s Word!” You should read the passage from the Bible every day.
- The fathers of the Church emphasized, that every word has a meaning and contains depth that we do not even expect or comprehend. The abundance of understanding depends on our relationship with God.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit:

- Ask the Holy Spirit to open your heart for the Word of God – we need Him to come upon our hearts and change them, and open the Word of God before them - how it acts on our hearts is God’s mystery. Until the end of our lives, the Word, which we read and meditate upon many times, can surprise us.

According to the traditions of the Carmelite order, on July 16, 1251, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock, a Carmelite. During the vision, she revealed to him.

A century and a quarter later, the Carmelite order began to celebrate on this date the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

The History of the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The Carmelites had long claimed that their order extended back to ancient times—indeed, that it was founded on and Elisha. While others disputed this idea, Pope Honorius III, in approving the order in 1226, seemed to accept its antiquity. The celebration of the feast became wrapped up with this controversy, and, in 1609, after Robert Cardinal Bellarmine examined the origins of the feast, it was declared the patronal feast of the Carmelite order.

From then on, the celebration of the feast began to spread, with various popes approving the celebration in southern Italy, then Spain and her colonies, then Austria, Portugal and her colonies, and finally in the Papal States, before Benedict XIII placed the feast on the universal calendar of the Latin Church in 1726. It has since been adopted by some Eastern Rite Catholics as well.

The feast celebrates the devotion that the Blessed Virgin Mary has to those who are devoted to her, and who signal that devotion by wearing the Brown Scapular. According to tradition, those who wear the scapular faithfully and remain devoted to the Blessed Virgin until death will be granted the grace of final perseverance and be delivered from Purgatory early.

ESL Teachers Needed

The Bayonne Adult ESL Program (English as a Second Language), housed at St. Henry’s School is searching for volunteer teachers. You do not have to speak a second language to teach, just an interest to help fellow residents learn English.

The program has morning classes on Tuesday and Thursday 10:00 to 12:00; and an evening class on Thursday, 6:30 to 8:30.

There are two ten week semesters from October until April.
