

The Star that come unstuck

Once upon a time, a shiny
glittery star was in the black night sky.

He had no glue and fell out of the sky.

He landed in Wales on a slippery roof.

Whoosh!

On to a tree with a great big BANG!

He scared the squirrels
and they all jumped out!

A boy and girl found him.

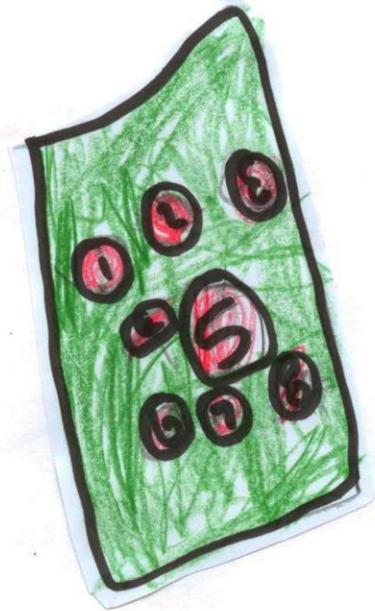

They took him home, put him to bed and gave him warm milk and a teddy.

They read him a story and sang him a lullaby.

The star went fast asleep.

The boy and the girl
phoned an astronaut.

Please can you take the star in your rocket?

They put him in a rocket.

The Astronaut
dropped the star back
into the sky
on his way to the Moon.
