

Cancellation & No-Refund Policy

All ticket sales for SoCal Prestige Events, including the Brunchin' Behavior Series and specialty events, are final.

We do not offer refunds, credits, or transfers for any reason, including but not limited to schedule changes, personal conflicts, illness, or no-shows.

Because our events include catered food, entertainment, and vendor services that must be paid for in advance, every ticket purchased goes directly toward securing those costs. For this reason, all sales are strictly non-refundable.

In the rare event that SoCal Prestige Events must cancel or reschedule an event due to unforeseen circumstances, ticket holders will be notified immediately and provided with an alternate date or credit option at our discretion.

By purchasing a ticket, customers acknowledge and agree to this No-Refund Policy.
