Elk of the Month

This month's Elk of the Month is a man that steps up whenever needed. He is always around to give a hug or a laugh and he supports most of our events. He is an all around helpful guy without needing to be asked. Please join me in congratulating Willie William. Thank you Willie, for all that you do!

Sincerely,
Archie Stark | Leading Knight

Volunteer Of the Month

The Volunteer of the Month for August is someone who works behind the scenes most often. She helps at the Club or with the Bowling Tournament when asked but she really shines when it comes to our youth activities and the Elks Hoop Shoot. Helping to keep all the kids straight, making sure the I's are dotted and the T's are crossed, she can be found organizing and confirming our contestants. Thank You Lauren Heger for all that you do and congratulations on being this month's Volunteer of the Month.

Sincerely,
Joe Mondragon | Loyal Knight

Anyone violating this rule may be denied service, asked to leave the Club, and may be subjected to disciplinary action by the House Committee.

a.) Possession, consumption, or use of any type of Marijuana product on Lodge property is hereby forbidden by a Member; and will be considered "Conduct unbecoming an Elk." Also, Federal Law prohibits Marijuana. Our non-Elk guests and visitors must, likewise, obey our House Rules concerning the possession, consumption, or use of marijuana products while on our property.

9. No Lodge or Club property will be removed from the premises without approval of, and being signed out by the Club Manager or an authorized representative prior to such removal.
