By signing this document, I agree that kayak fishing exposes me to certain risks which may end up with harm, dismemberment, or even death. I hereby absolve Tupperware Navy or any members thereof of any risks involved with any club related events.

Dues: $20 / Annually

Tupperware Navy is a saltwater kayak fishing club based on the Jersey Shore. We host a public kayak fishing tournament, intra club tournaments and do group trips throughout the year to fishing destinations. All monies collected goes back into the club or our fisheries by ways of donations to organizations that promote the future of our fisheries. Our meetings are held monthly at Heavy Reels Brewing Co. in Seaside Heights, NJ on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 7:30 PM
