Disclaimer and Release

I acknowledge that being around animals, including ponies and donkeys, carries a risk and warrant to maintain due care and concern for myself throughout this programme/session and similarly ensure the same for any other person(s) that I am working with.

I appreciate that the facilitators and team at The Pony Paddocks will not create any dangerous situation or interaction and will do everything to ensure safety for all throughout the programme/session and I shall not assign any direct liability thereto for any situation or issue that might arise.

I have been made aware of safety on and around The Pony Paddocks and the potential that animals can bite, butt or kick if alarmed. Although this is extremely unlikely, in the event of such incident I will not hold The Pony Paddocks or any members of the team liable in any way.
