NEVER TOO PREPARED

When you drop your child off to us we know there is never a thought that their safety could be at risk. Unfortunately, with the sad reality of this world we can never be too prepared. As hard as it is to think about the possibility of an active shooter entering the center, we have to be prepared in case this does occur. A retired police officer from the city of Pittsburgh came to our center on February 20th to discuss how to keep our children safe during an active shooting. The ladies ran through drills where they learned where to place the children to keep them safe as possible and also how to stop the attacker while keeping the staff safe as well. Emotions were high as we reenacted an active shooting with one of our own staff members as the shooter. I can proudly say these ladies are well prepared and will do anything to keep your child safe.

NEW CACFP CONTRACTS

New CACFP contracts must be updated annually. Mrs. Tammy will be adding this contract to the document section on Brightwheel and all families must complete it.

YOGA DAY

Ms. Jen will be returning for yoga on March 20th for the preschoolers and older toddlers. This is a chance for them to get all the cabin fever rage out!

WEATHER APPROPRIATE CLOTHING

This time of year, is a funky one for weather. Our teachers have finally been able to take the kids outside on those warmer days so please make sure to send your child in with a jacket.
