From the Pastor's Desk

"Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is - His good, pleasing and perfect will." - Romans 12:2

A few weeks ago, I had an appointment near Selinsgrove and I was out around lunch time so I decided to grab a bite to eat. I decided I wanted to eat somewhere that I don't often have a chance to, and Dairy Queen was calling my name. As I received my order, I walked to the dining area and sat near the television. The moment I sat down to enjoy my meal, an ad for Wendy's came on the screen and I thought to myself, "You guys are advertising in the wrong place! Or maybe it's the right place, I'm not sure." The juxtaposition of a competitor's advertisement appearing on the screen of the establishment I was eating at struck me as ironic. But then, the more I thought about it, it reminded me how sometimes Christians can become guilty of "advertising for the wrong team," so to speak.

Every day we advertise something. Through our words, attitudes, priorities and actions, we tell others what matters most to us. As followers of Christ, we are called to point people toward Him. But when our conversations are filled with anger, when our priorities mirror the world's values, or when our actions contradict our faith, we send a confusing message about the One we claim to serve. Instead of displaying the grace, truth, and love of Christ, we can unintentionally promote selfishness, pride or division.

Romans 12:2 reminds us that we are not to be shaped by the world's patterns. Rather, we are to be transformed by the renewing of our minds. The word Paul uses here is μεταμορφοῦσθε (metamorphousthe). It's the root of the word "metamorphosis". In other words, Christians should be so different from the world it's as if we underwent a radical transformation like from a caterpillar to a butterfly. But a caterpillar cannot will itself to instantly become a butterfly. It takes a period of time in which the caterpillar is broken down and reformed inside the chrysalis. In the same way, we must give ourselves grace and time and allow Christ to break down the things in our lives that do not reflect Him and replace them with things that do. The more we allow Christ to change us, the more our lives become a clear and attractive testimony of His goodness.

Sometimes it's helpful for us to receive a "check-up from the neck-up," as my colleague so eloquently puts it. So my challenge for us this month is to use the change of pace that the summer brings as time to run some "spiritual diagnostics." Prayerfully and honestly consider what your life is advertising. Are your words and actions pointing others toward Jesus? What steps of faith might He be asking you to take? Day by day, as we seek to be conformed to Christ, may we be faithful ambassadors who proudly represent the right team; the Kingdom of God.

Your fellow "Christian Chrysalis",
Pastor Ben

A NOTE FROM DIANE

Dear Barbara, Thinking of you in this blessed season. Hope you are well and Sara Jane as well. All is well here. I'm enjoying the fellowship of Cherry Avenue Christian Church but do love to receive the monthly newsletter from St. Andrews and seeing you are all active and doing well. I am very happy that Dpring has come after a hard winter and I can be back to playing in the dirt and taking part in the miracle of new growth. Much love to you and my friends at St. Andrews.

Love, Dianne Campbell

Thank You, Lord, that You are near to all who call upon You, and You will fulfill the desire of those who fear You. Thank You that You hear my cries and will save me from any weakness that could lead me away from all You have for me .

KIDS KORNER

RECYCLED PLASTIC BOTTLE WIND SPINNER

SUPPLIES:

- 1 Liter Plastic Bottle
- Colored Duck Tape or Electrical Tape
- Bob Cutter or Craft Knife
- Scissors
- Snap Swivel
- Coated Paper Clip
- Fishing Line

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Start by washing out your bottle and removing any labels. Cover the middle section of the bottle with tape.
You can cut different colored tape into strips to create a stripe life effect like we have.
2. Starting from the top of the tape and ending at the bottom of the tape, cut vertical slits in the bottle, about 3/4" apart.
3. Push the top of the bottle toward the bottom of the bottle. This will cause the slits to collapse. Hold it in place and fold each slit in the center, creating a crease.
4. Next angle the slits by making folds at the top and bottom of each slit. This allows the wind to catch them and make it spin. At the top of each slit make a 45-degree fold to the right. At the bottom of each slit make a 45-degree fold to the left.
5. Cut a small hole in the top of the bottle cap.
6. Unfold and stretch the paper clip out and thread it through the looped end of the swivel. Twist the paper clip together then insert it into the hole in the top of the bottle cap. Bend the ends of the paper clip so that it can't come back out the hole.

EXPERT TIPS & FAQS

A snap swivel is a piece of fishing tackle available at all discount department stores. Look for them in packages in the fishing aisle of the sporting goods section. They are inexpensive, a couple dollars for a package. The swivel is used so that the fishing line that your wind spinner is hanging from does not tangle around itself.
