Executive Director Andrew Shirvell tonight issued the following statement:

“Florida Voice for the Unborn congratulates Governor Ron DeSantis and all pro-life candidates on their General Election victories. Following the U.S. Supreme Court’s historic overturning of Roe v. Wade last June, pro-abortion politicians (like failed gubernatorial candidate Charlie Crist) spent months trying to persuade Florida voters that the central issue of this election was preserving the state-sanctioned murder of preborn children. But the election results indisputably show that the Florida abortion industry and its political puppets suffered a clear, humiliating defeat all over the Sunshine State. Florida citizens have overwhelmingly rejected – yet again – the viciously evil pro-abortion agenda of the Democratic Party and have given Governor DeSantis an unequivocal mandate to quickly dismantle the Florida abortion industry once and for all.”

Shirvell concluded, “With renewed pro-life majorities in both chambers of the Legislature, Florida Voice for the Unborn again calls upon Governor DeSantis to immediately declare that the upcoming post-General Election Special Legislative Session agenda will include consideration of comprehensive legislation protecting ALL unborn children in Florida. It is long past time for Governor DeSantis to act as boldly for unborn children as President Donald Trump did during his presidential administration.”
