

20 good reasons why it is a GOD THING to earn money & share with Sunrider!

Sharing Sunrider with others is how we earn money with Sunrider.
It requires us to learn new skills and ways of looking at those around us.

1. Rather than thinking I'm not good at sales, I should just change the word "selling" to "service," serving people rather than trying to persuade them.
2. It transforms the way you look at people. Rather than looking at them as "they wouldn't be interested in what I have to sell, to thinking, "I truly can help them; I just need to learn how to reach the heart of service vs. selling.
3. When people realize they can trust you to be interested in their needs rather than your own, you develop a deeper relationship and build lifetime friendships.
4. Step out of our comfort zone in tremendous personal growth
5. It transforms the heart from selfishness and self-centeredness to love for others.
6. You build a whole new set of skills:
7. You learn the art of listening for needs and being able to offer help, not just saying you'll pray to them, but genuinely offering to help them. Each time after calling them, pray together that God will bless the natural means of healing.
8. You develop the art of reaching the heart, not just sharing knowledge of the head.
9. You develop character quality of trustworthiness – you do what we promise, we call when we promise, etc. You don't let people fall through the cracks. You keep connected.
10. You develop the art of what to say to reach the heart, not just sharing head knowledge.
11. You hone your computer skills on the company computer, your computer, and even when you help others with their computer skills.
12. You learn how to tell your own SR story compellingly and straightforwardly...you hone the skill of storytelling.
13. The more income you make, the more people you can help.
14. You are helping people with their lifestyles to live within God's design for life and health. You are helping them realize that when we violate this design plan, suffering follows as a natural result.
15. You are relieving suffering, pain, and possible early death.
16. You are giving hope!
17. You are changing an individual, a family, and generations to follow.
18. The time and money saved by having life-changing products at our fingertips
19. Healing Naturally is God's design.
20. It's an excellent way to "pay it forward" to someone who has shared SR with us and changed our lives.

What would be your Godly reason for sharing SR?
