Panama Canal Cruise: A Journey Through One of the World's Greatest Engineering Marvels!

Embark on a journey like no other as you cruise through the legendary Panama Canal aboard the Viking Mars. This 12-day voyage offers a full transit through one of the world's most remarkable engineering feats, connecting the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans. As you sail through the canal, marvel at the intricate system of locks and lush landscapes that frame this historic waterway.

The adventure begins with the vibrant culture and stunning vistas of Colón, Panama, where the echoes of the canal's construction can still be felt. Explore the city's unique blend of cultures and soak in the vibrant local atmosphere. Next, the ship sails to the shores of Puerto Limón,

Costa Rica, a lush paradise known for its rich Afro-Caribbean heritage and breathtaking rainforests. Whether you choose to explore the bustling markets or venture into the wild to spot exotic wildlife, Puerto Limón offers something for every traveler.

Continuing the journey, the Viking Mars docks in Roatán, Honduras, a picturesque island paradise surrounded by the world's second-largest coral reef.
